June Recap

Resume Writing Workshop:

On Monday, June 10 and Wednesday, June 26, the first in a series of resume workshops were held in the LRC, taught by our counselor/Tutor, Norman Robinson. Though the first classes focused mostly on resume building, participants voiced that they were interested in guidance for all aspects of job searching, so going further, these Resume Writing Workshops will also include Interviewing tips. Two such workshops will be held in July, with more to come!

Bullying Professional Development:

The LRC was closed from 12-2:30 p.m. on Friday, June 14 for an SIUE employee professional development program on Bullying.

Tons of Youth Programming:

These youth programs will continue through the summer, so if you need any LRC space for anything, please contact us ASAP!

Father's Day Make-and-Take Card Class:

On Thursday, June 13, the LRC held a Father's Day card class. Happy belated Father's Day to all the father's out there!
